LIABILITY BILL WAS REJECTED

Senate Committee Refused to Favorably Report the Sadler Measure.

WILL SPEAK FOR JAMESTOWN

Hon. Harry St. Geo. Tucker and Others Before Finance Committee To-night.

At a session held last night, the Senate Committee on Finance, reported the House bill appropriating $400,000, for The vote on the Thomas bill, which called for an appropriation of $500,000 was a tie, and this bill will probably never come out of the committee, Mr. Thomas will inquire of posal of the State, and if sufficient money is in sight, will make a fight on the floor of the Senate for the $500,000 apfloor of the Senate for the $500,000 appropriation. The Finance Committee also heard representatives of Laurel Reformatory in the interest of an appropriation of $35,000 for improvements at that institution, but took no action. Mr. Ashton Starke made the principal speech. A half a dozen Laurel boys were brought down to be shown to the committee. Among the advocates of the appropriation present were, Messrs. George C. Jefferson, James Caskle, John S. Harwood, E. A. Catlin, S. L. Kelley, Charles Hutzler, O. J. Sands, George B. Davis and others.

B. Davis and others.

After a long and lively session in the afternoon, the Committee for Courts of Justice reported adversely the Sadier bil removing the $10,00 limit in saits for damages resulting from accidents causing death. The vote was five to four, the chairman not voting. A sharp fight will be made on the floor, Mr. Strode, of Amherst, offered an amendment in the committee that created an even split on the vote. This amendment is looked upon with favor by many members, and from present appearances will likely be eventually adopted. It leaves the present law as it stands except in cases where the pecuniary loss resulting from death is over $10,000, in which see the prescise pecuniary loss as ascertained is to constitute the limit for the amount of damages allowed. Where the killing was wilful the amendment lets the bars down entirely and fixes absolutely no limit to the damages that may be allowed by the jury. The Sadier bill in its original shape was vigorously dought by rairoad and other interests. The chief speaker on this side was Mr. William B. McIlwaine. Mr. C. V. Meredith spoke in favor of the bill.

Among the other Senate committees which met were Fish and Game, which had nothing of striking importance before it; Privileges and Elections, which made an adverse report on the Thomas primary bill; Roads and Internal Navigation, which reported favorably the House bill enforcing the Jim Crow law now in operation in Richmond street cars in all sections of the State; and County, Cities and Towns, which gave further consideration to the "consolidation" bill, drawn by Colonel George Wayne Anderson. This bill has been amended to such an extent that it has had to be reprinted. Agreement has been reached now, it is said, on every point except the time for holding the special elections provided for in the measure. As originally planned the election was to be held not less than forty nor more than sixty days after the date of notice. Efforts are being made to have this changed to seven months, so as to allow everybody who chooses to qualify himself to vote. An early agreement upon this point also is expected and the bill as amended will then be passed in both houses without opposition.

Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition Company, is in the city and is the guest of Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson, No. 10 East Franklin Street. Mr. Tucker is here to appear before a joint meeting of the Finance Committees of the two houses of the General Assembly in the hall of the House of Delegates to-night, to discuss the Jamestown Exposition measures, along with other gentlemen of asures, along with other gentlemen of prominence. The subject is not only of great public interest, but the chief speak-er is a platform orator of such rare force and ability that there is every assurance of a large attendance of members and visitors.

Any who may desire to come will be entirely welcome.

The bill to which Mr. Tucker will direct his especial attention is that appropriating $160,000 for State buildings, entertainments, &c., at the proposed Ter-Centenary. The committees will take no action to-night, but will consider the matter later in separate executive sessions.

Eat What You Like

Don't Starve or Diet, But Use Mi-o-na, and Cure Your Stomach Troubles.

The average treatment of stomach troubles consists of a rigid diet list, which often half starves the patient. Of course it would be foolish for anyone who knows that some foods are positively harmful and poisonous to conpositively marintin and poisonous to con-tinue eating them, even while follow-ing the Mi-o-na treatment, but in or-dinary cases of stomach troubles it is not necessary to starve or diet if Mi-o-na is faithfully used, a tablet before each meal.

This scientific remedy, for the cure of stomach troubles, acts upon the whole digestive system, and strengthens the organs so that they are able to digest any food that is eaten without fear of distress. If you suffer from loss of appetite, belching of gases, sour taste in the mouth, furred tongue, severe pains in the region of the stomach, depression of spirits, bad dreams, lack of energy, a stomach cough, of

TO CREATE

The Beautiful Harmonies That Make

Perfect Music

It is absolutely necessary that the piano be a strictly high grade scientifically constructed instrument, equal to the delicate pianissimo, and alike to depicting the fire and spirit of the musician's fancies. What would the thrilling works of Liszt sound like on some of the tin pans that, disguised and spirited in among reputable pianos, are represented to the buying public as high grade, sweet-toned instruments? Such pianos will prove their worthlessness before they have had even ordinary usage.

In buying a piano be sure that the puchase is made from a company that bears a reputation for selling strictly first-class instruments and no other. The Cable Company's trade mark is recognized the world over as an absolute guarantee that their instruments are standards of piano manufacture.

Three additional bills touching the whiskey traffic in the State were introduced in the Senate yesterday by Judge Mann, of Nottoway. Two of them repeal old acts relating to the sale of cider, now covered in a general law. The third embodies in a separate measure that feature of the Man law amendments proposed several days ago by the Nottoway senator touching the operations of social clubs. It provides that any corporation Barnard, of Pulaski; W. N. Brown, of Danville; S. F. Clement, of Pittsylvania; L. K. Cornett, of Grayson; D. L. Ellen, of Floyd; John R. Guerrant, of Franklin; J. L. The Committee on Privileges and Elections of the Senate unanimously yesterday reported the Early bill, which provides for the appointment of the commissioner of the revenue by the circuit and corporation courts. The bill seems to have a strong following in the Senate in the Senate of the House by a vote of the 43, and its patron on the Senate side, Mr. Chapman, seems confident of its passage. It takes its place on the calendar and will be reached in its regular order.

In the Senate yesterday Judge Wickham, of Henrico county, offered by request a bill authorizing and directing the Governor to sell the quarry rights in the Westham Magazine tract of land at public auction.

On January 21, 1860, by an act of the General Assembly, the Governor of Virginia was authorized to execute to George W. Gordon and others a deed conveying to them all the right and title and interest of the Commonwealth in that tract of land in the county of Henrico on James River and the Kanawha Cana, known as the Westham Magazine tract of land, containing 171-8 acres, more or less, reserving to the State, however, the granite and other stone on the land with full and invested right of quarrying for and removing the same. This deed was executed in due form on February 11, 1863. Since that time the Reading Iron Company, has through successive conveyances became the owner of this land. The Wickham bill recites now that the State reservation is of little value to the Commonwealth, but that it nevertheless constitutes a cloud upon the tile of the land, and asks for the safe of the reservation at public auction to the higher bidder.

Health Beauty

Beauty is the external proof of health; with failing health comes failing beauty. Woman's delicate organism is frequently over-taxed by arduous household duties, and the demands of society. The con-stant drain upon her vitality, weakens her nervous system. The penalty is a tired, wornout, exhausted condition which destroys her appetite, robs her of rest, and at intervals causes much suffering and distress. When these conditions exist, the weakened nerves must be strengthened. Dr. Miles' Nervine will do this. It stimulates the action of all the organs, brings refreshing sleep, and drives away that look of care.

"I have taken Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for years, as did my mother before me. Whenever I feel thred, worn-out, or have headache, I always take the Norvine and it strengthens me. I consider it a great remedy for nervousness or debility."

MARTIN SPEAKS

Junior Senator Cordially Received By a Joint Meeting of the Body.

MAKES SOME COMPARISONS

Believes Legislatures of State Will Compare Favorably With Constitutional Conventions.

State and the visitors at the Capitol yesterday when he appeared by invitation speech, returning his thanks for his third election to the United States Senate. Hon. W. W. Baker, of Chesterfield, th. Father of the House," presented the resolution inviting the senator to appear, and it was readily adopted.

The resolution of Captain Baker was fore the joint meeting. They found him at Murphy's Hotel, where he is stoppink, and escorted him to the half of the House, the senators having preceded him. The session was entirely informal. Captain Baker called to order and presented Hon. N. B. Early, of Greene, who in turn introduced Senator Martin.

"I have the honor," said Mr. Early, "of presenting to you a man who needs no eulogy at my hands. I refer to your United States senator, the Hon. Thomas S. Martin." S. Martin.'

Senator Martin was loudly applauded as he bowed his thanks and commenced his brief, impromptu address. He spoke in part as follows:

in part as follows:

"I feel peculiarly honored by the courtesy and the consideration shown me here to-day. I am not, however, vain enough to appropriate to myself personally what I know to be a compliment intended as a recognition of the high office which for the time being has been committed to my care by the people of Virginia and their respective members of the General Assembly.

"I am second to ne one in my admiration for the great men—the wise and patriotic men—who have composed in large part, with one notable exception, the membership of the Constitutional Conventions of our State, but I am very willing, gentlemen of the General Assembly, when I look back upon the history of this Commonwealth and the history of its legislative assembles and the distinguished men who have served the people, to be responsible for the opinion that the members of our Legislature will compare favorably in ability and patriotism with those composing the Constitutional this Capitol.

Has Been Conservative.

"It is sometimes said that the Legislature acts hastly in the enactment of laws. On the contrary, I believe that the General Assembly, reflecting the characteristics of Virginia's citizens, has been uitra conservative. If it deserves any criticism, it is this.

"It has been said, too, that our statutes are crude and difficult of interpretation. I do not concur in this opinion." I believe that the statutes of Virginia, which now constitute the Code of our State, have been conceived in wisdom and expressed with clearness, and constitute as good a Code of laws as those in any State in the American republic.

"But, gentlemen, I am not here to make a speech. I came to Richmond on this occasion for the purpose of meeting my friends of the General Assembly of Virginia and making the acquaintance of those I do not know. I did not contemplate the pleasure of such an occasion as this. I must, however, say to the members of the General Assembly in person that I appreciate gratefully and thank the Virginia people most sincerely for the honor conferred upon me for the third time, January 23d, in choosing me as senator for Virginia in the Congress of the United States.

"I thank the people of the State and the members of this Assembly. To my personal friends I desire to say that words cannot express my deep sense of colligation to them. In conclusion, I desire to thairk you for this occasion, and for the honor and courtesy you have shown me to-day."

When the senator had concluded his remarks he was again cheered, and members crowded about him to shalte his hand in congratulation.
